Where we come from

"It looks like they're bringing in our new client's dossier"

Time consuming

Risk of making errors

Depending on postal services

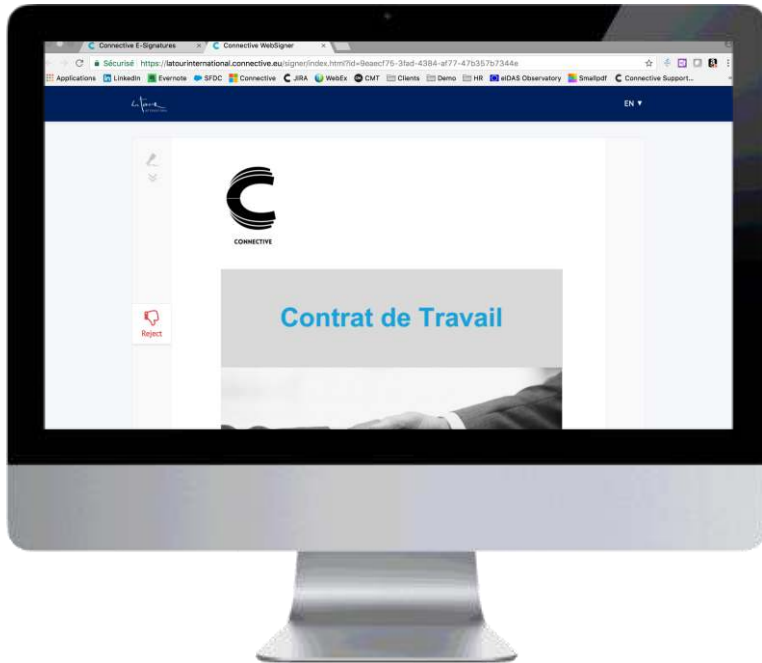

Hulking archives

La Tour International & Connective share these values !

Need for digital signatures solution to make our clients' legal transactions proceed more smoothly and speed up the process by freeing themselves of time and geographical constraints.

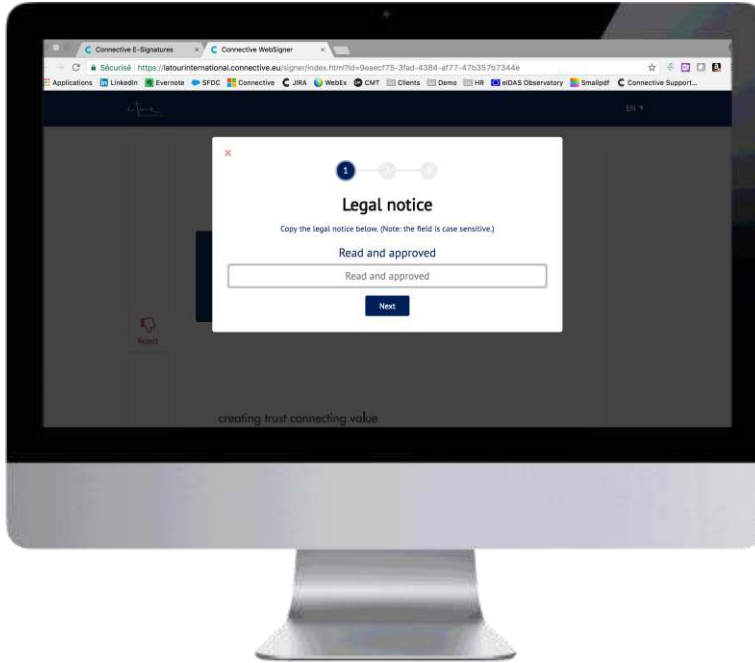

While “complying” perfectly with our values.

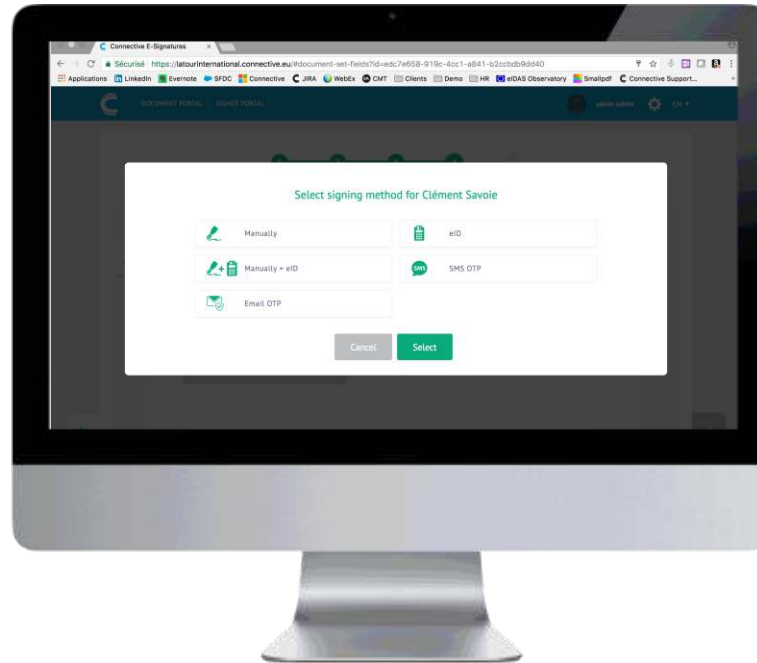

“designed and tailor-made” according to clients’ requirements and uses

saving time by filling in legal notices digitally.

Connective eSignatures ensures the process' “faultless” security, via multiple recipient identification procedures (Text message code, email code etc.)

real-time monitoring of the status
of the signature process.

Completely digital files are easily archived and consulted by Legal or Tax Directors.
